

GONNET RASTEAU 2011

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

France

APPELLATION

Rhone Valley

VARIETALS

Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre

TASTING NOTES

A good, medium to full bodied Rhone wine that would pair well with heavy dishes like lamb or beef. Was nearly purple in color and opaque, with a few slowly appearing and descending legs. On the nose it was full, but not overwhelming, with dark fruits and hint of bacon. On the palate there was plum, fig, pleasant earth, and mineral. There was a medium amount of tannins with a lingering and pleasant finish.
