

LAURONA 2009

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

Spain

APPELLATION

Monstant

VARIETALS

Grenache, Carignan, Merlot, Syrah, and Cabernet Sauvignon

TASTING NOTES

Bright violet. Exotic, high-pitched aromas of black raspberry, cherry-cola and lavender, with a zesty mineral overtone. Taut red fruit flavors give way to deeper blackberry and cherry in the mid-palate; shows silky texture and appealing spiciness. The mineral note comes back on the long, focused finish. I'd bet that this wine will age well on its balance.

RATING

Wine Advocate: 90 Points

The eponymous 2009 Laurona is sourced from the younger vines planted at the Espectacle vineyard plus some other vineyards also in the village of La Figuera, plus some Syrah from Darmòs and a little Cariñena. It has a ripe and developed nose with some tertiary aromas, notes of brick dust and iron, some leather, spices and Mediterranean herbs. The polished and generous palate has fine tannins and moderate acidity. It has some balsamic aromas that reminded me of some of the aromas the Bordeaux grapes develop with some time, and it's possible that some vineyards have some Cabernet mixed in the field. This is now ready.
