

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

Spain

APPELLATION

Rioja

VARIETALS

Tempranillo, Graciano

TASTING NOTES

Garnet-red with good depth of colour and little sign of evolution. Intense, clear, distinctive aromas. A compendium of fruity nuances of redcurrants, blueberries and wild berries combined with spicy hints of clove, curcuma. By swirling it in the glass the aromas become more intense with strong reminders of fresh red-berry fruit. Lively, with juicy, balanced tannins. The red-berry fruit again comes to the fore, accompanied by spices and reminders of fine wood. The finish is long, fresh and lingering.

TIM ATKIN'S REVIEW

There's a slightly farmyardy note to this red, but it doesn't overwhelm the wine. Blending Tempranillo with Graciano, it's characteristically smooth, savoury and well balanced with understated oak and bright, refreshing acidity.
